DETAILED ITINERARY

Xi'an: Terracotta Warriors & Bronze Chariots

Today, you will explore one of China's most remarkable archaeological discoveries - the Terracotta Warriors and Horses, a vast underground army built to protect Emperor Qin Shi Huang in the afterlife. Admire the lifelike soldiers, chariots, and horses, each uniquely crafted over 2,000 years ago. Next, visit the Bronze Chariots Exhibition, showcasing intricately detailed bronze horse-drawn chariots unearthed from the emperor's tomb. Conclude the day with a stop at the Xi'an Art Ceramics Factory, where you can see skilled artisans recreating terracotta figurines using traditional techniques.
